

CCVS dissemination workshops 2018

Programme Kampala workshop, February 5th, 2018 at Royal Suites

- 9.45am: Arrival and registration
- 10am: Opening, welcome remarks and introduction CCVS-International
(Prof. dr. Ilse Derluyn, Lecturer at Ghent University/Co-director CCVS-International)
- 10.15am: Achievements, challenges and ways forward in enhancing mental health within Lira District
(Team CCVS-Uganda)
- 11am: General reflections and questions
- 11.10am: Tea break
- 11.30am: Center for Victims of Torture (CVT) Uganda's group therapy approach
(Mr. Gabriele Marini, Psychotherapist/Field Representative, Center for Victims of Torture Uganda)
- 11.50pm: Can interfacing with ghosts and spirits heal war victims and conflict-affected communities?:
On the intersection between mental health, cultural belief systems and transitional justice
(Mr. Benard Okot Kasozi, Senior Research and Advocacy Officer/Lead Psychosocial Researcher, Refugee Law Project)
- 12.10pm: When community mental health outreaches become market places: The case of the Wayo-Nero mental health project in Northern Uganda
(Dr. James Mugisha, Senior Researcher, Butabika National Referral Hospital)
- 12.30pm: General reflections and questions
- 12.50pm: Closing remarks
(Mr. Scott Bartell, Programme Manager/Acting Legal Advisor, Trust Fund for Victims - International Criminal Court)
- 1pm: Closure and departure